TUSCAN WANDERING

NOT TO BE MISSED AS YOU WANDER

CHIANTI

PANZANO IN CHIANTI

The venue for the annual Vino al Vino Wine Festival in September, this historic town is also where you'll find the famous butcher's shop and restaurants of Dario Cecchini, a larger-than-life legend in culinary circles.

SAN GIMIGNANO

With its 16 towers, San Gimignano is one of Tuscany's most impressive cityscapes and its historic centre, including the Duomo, Collegiata di Santa Maria Assunta and Musei Civici, is a World Heritage Site.

SIENA

Twice a year, the grand main square hosts Siena's Palio, the highly competitive horse race, but at all other times visit for the elaborate Cathedral of Santa Maria Assunta – an awe-inspiring Romanesque-Gothic masterpiece.

FLORENCE

A day trip is never enough to absorb the magnificent art and architecture both inside and outside the city's museums and galleries. Boutiques, fine dining and landscaped gardens only make Florence more memorable.

THE VAL D'ORCIA

BAGNO VIGNONI AND THE VIA FRANCIGENA

This pretty village, a stop-off for pilgrims on the Via Francigena, is the starting point for some spectacular walks – and when you come back, enjoy a hearty lunch in the square, looking out over its famous thermal baths.

BAGNI SAN FILIPPO

Take a walk into the woods for thermal baths as nature intended, including the dramatic Balena Bianca, a towering build-up of natural mineral deposits. With a picnic, you can stay all day under the trees.

PIENZA

Cheese tasting is the order of the day in hilltop Pienza, a Renaissance ideal of the perfect town that's known for its pecorino, as well as its grand palaces, churches and the breathtaking views from its ancient walls.

MONTALCINO & MONTEPULCIANO

If you love wine, these two grand dames of viticulture deserve your attention. Decide who's doing the driving and sip away to your heart's content – or take two days to see them both so you can take it in turns to do the tasting!
